The Chairperson's term cannot be extended if it would mean the extension of his or her service as a director beyond the term limitations described herein. To allow rapid progress, Working Groups are intended to be small and composed of individuals knowledgeable in the area defined by the charter. When a Working Group grows too large to be effective, as determined by the majority of the Board, the Board may split it into an interest group (a discussion forum) and a much smaller Working Group (a core group of highly dedicated Member representatives). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all Tier I Founding Member representatives will be guaranteed a seat in the core group.

Section 7.16. Limited Participation.

From time to time the Board of Directors may authorize employees of non-Members or representatives of Tier IV Members to participate in certain Working Groups. The charter of any such Working Group must indicate that such participation is permitted and identify any restrictions on participation (e.g., participation is limited to thirty (30) days, or attendance is only permitted at specified Working Group meetings). If any non-Member is permitted to participate under the charter of a Working Group, the non-Member must agree to all the terms of the IPR Policy before it is authorized to participate directly or indirectly in any activity or meeting of the Working Group. A non-Member undertaking such an agreement is only permitted to participate in such authorized Working Group and is expressly prohibited from participation in any respect in any other Working Group.

Any Affiliates, consultants or contractors of the non-Member are treated as separate non-Members for the purpose of this Section and must also agree to abide by the applicable terms of the Governance Documents before being authorized to participate in a Working Group, including any confidentiality provisions.
